(B) 1866 Carolus Judkins Of Belmont County, Ohio, His Possible Wife (____) Judkins, His Wife Hannah J. (Cooper) Judkins, And His Descendants

1866 Carolus Judkins of Belmont County, Ohio, was a son of 1861 Thomas Judkins of Belmont County, Ohio, and Sarah (Jones) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1693 Robert[2], 1761 Robert[3], 1783 Nicholas[4], 1854 Carolus[5], 1861 Thomas[6])

Although the surname is listed as Judgkin rather than Judkins and the given name was listed as Chas., the year of birth, place of birth, and occupation indicate that this was the listing for Carolus Judkins. This record indicates that Carolus Judkins was born in about 1822 and that Hannah J. (Cooper) Judkins was born in about 1828.

This record also indicates that Carolus Judkins may have been married first to ____ (____) Judkins. The child Azariah Judgkin listed in the household was born in about 1841, when Carolus would have been about 19 years old, which would have been old enough to be the father, and when Hannah would have been only 13 years old, which is too young to have been the mother. However, no marriage record of Carolus Judkins to either ____ (____) Judkins or Hannah J. (Cooper) Judkins has as yet been found and no further record of Azariah Judkins has as yet been found, so further research will be required to confirm this identification.

The 1860 Census for Belmont County, Ohio, listed Carolos Judkins with the following household on June 1, 1860:

> "Dr. Carolus Judkins
> Died
> July 27 1866
> In the 11 [44?] Year

The photograph of this gravestone appears to be one side of a stone with Hannah Judkins on the other. The age listed appears to be 11, but may be 44. It is unclear whether the stone has worn the numerals or the stone was incorrectly carved, but given that Carolus Judkins was born in 1822 and died in 1866, it seems more probable that the carving on the stone has become worn.

The will of Carolus Judkins was dated on March 26, 1866, probated on August 14, 1866, at Belmont County, Ohio, W.B. K/202, and provided as follows:

"Will of Carolus Judkins Deceased.

History Of The Upper Ohio Valley, published by Brant & Fuller in 1890, included the following biographical sketch of Richard H. Taneyhill:

> "Richard H. Taneyhill was born in Calvert county, Md., in 1822. He removed with his parents to Barnesville in 1832. He was married in 1843 to Rebecca J. Judkins, daughter of Thomas Judkins. His children are ten in number and were born in the following order: Henry C, married to Anna James; Richard T., married to Mary Arnold; William S., married to Elizabeth Trott; Francis M., married to Priscilla J. Winland; Mary B., Eugene, Sarah, deceased; Hettie, deceased; Nettie and Nellie. He studied law with John Davenport, was admitted to the bar at St. Clairsville in 1847, and practiced law in Williamsburg, Noble Co., Ohio, twelve years. He has for several years been engaged in horticultural pursuits. He was for two years clerk of Warren township, six years justice of the peace, and two years mayor of Barnesville. He is best known among historical students and archaeologists by his learned and instructive essays on historical and archaeological matter contributed to the magazines, scientific journals, Ohio Valley Historical series, and other volumes of national circulation and prominence. His series of articles on the history of this portion of Belmont county, the mounds, forts, footprints, the Leatherwood God, etc., are the most painstaking, and approach nearer our idea of local history than any that we have heretofore met with in all our experience. Had it not been for Mr. Taneyhill, how little of the past of Warren township and vicinity would have been treasured up? The series of articles as published in the Barnesville Enterprise, written by Mr. Taneyhill, under the nom de plume of R. King Bennett, are invaluable. He is the author of the history of the Logan family in this work."

Herringshaw's Encyclopedia Of American Biography Of The Nineteenth Century, compiled by Thomas William Herringshaw and published in 1898, included the following biographical sketch of Richard Henry Taneyhill:

> "TANEYHILL, RICHARD HENRY, lawyer, jurist, author, was born June 30, 1822, in Calvert county, Md. He is a prominent lawyer of Barnesville, Ohio, where he has been mayor and justice of the peace for two terms. He is the author of a work entitled Leatherwood God; Life of Logan, the Mingo Chief; and other works."

History Of Barnesville, Ohio, by Richard H. Taneyhill, published by The Leatherwood Printing Company, in 1898, included the following biographical sketch of Richard H. Taneyhill:

"A Sketch of the Author.

Richard H. Taneyhill was born in Calvert county, Maryland, in 1822, and was one of a prominent family in the section of the State in which he was born. When a lad ten years old he came with his parents to Barnesvile, and remained a citizen of the community until he died, with the exception of some years spent in Noble county, where for a time he conducted a newspaper at Olive. He began life as a school teacher, but in 1843, he entered the law office of the Hon. John Davenport and began the study of law, and was admitted to the bar in l847. He continued the practice of that profession until about fifteen years ago, when his health failing him, he quit that business, and turned his attention to the more healthful occupation of raising small fruits, etc. As a lawyer, Mr. Taneyhill gained a reputation for his knowledge of the law, and for his oratorical abilities and fierv debates with colleagues. He was elected mayor of Barnesville in 1874, serving one term, and held various other offices of the town and township at other times. He was an author of no small repute, and his pen was fluent whether dipped into history or story of fiction or description. He was a man of wonderful memory, and being a close student and a profound thinker, he was an authority upon many subjects, and had dates of public affairs, men and incidents of our country's history so firmly fixed in his mind that they were always at his command. During his life he contributed largely to the press of Barnesville and Belmont county. His articles on local history extended through many numbers of the Enterprise, under the non de plume of "R. King Bennett," entitled "Historical Sketches,'* and have been re-produced at different times. Among his other articles were "The Leatherwood God," which attracted much attention, "Mary Grayson," "Joe Ransom," "The Old Walnut Table," and many other sketches, which were read with much interest. He has left quite a number of articles in manuscript. For several years before his death Mr. Taneyhill suffered much on account of impaired health, but his mind remained as firm as ever, and his love of writing continued to the very last, much of the past summer being spent in that way. He died the 29th of November, 1898, aged seventy-six years."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for William Holland Bines published on January 12, 1891, in The Pottsville Daily Republican, Pottsville, Pennsylvania:

"Death of William H. Bines.

William Holland Bines, Superintendent of City Bridges, died on Saturday at his residence, 1716 Tioga street, Philadelphia, after six weeks' illness. Mr. Bines was born in Belmont, Ohio, December 25, 1826, and was a son of Dr. David Bines, who died when William was three years old. Shortly after his father's death the son was brought to Philadelphia to live with his grandfather, Samuel Mason, by whom he was educated, finishing his studies at Haverford College.

He returned to Ohio soon after leaving college, and his skill as a mathematician, as evidenced on the witness stand in the St. Clairsville Court, commended him to Chief Engineer Medbury, of the Central Ohio Railroad, who at once appointed him to a responsible position in its engineering department. Some years later he came back to Pennsylvania, and after serving some years as superintendent of the Mine Hill Railroad, entered the employ of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company. He was for many years Resident Engineer, with headquarters at Pottstown. Then he became Principal Assistant Engineer, and succeeded the late William Lorenz as Chief Engineer of the Reading system. He severed his connection with the company about the time Mr. Gowen retired from the management.

In 1887, Mr. Bines was appointed by the Director of Public Works, Superintendnet of City Bridges, and held that position at the time of his death. In a quiet way Mr. Bines was a liberal giver to the poor and other worthy objects of charity. He was married in 1852 to Mary E. Judkins, of Ohio, who, with three of their four children, Samuel M. Bines, of Phoenixville, Mr. Howard E. Mitchell and Mary E. Bines, survive him.

For many years Mr. Bines was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was President of the Trustees during the building of the new Trinity church, at Fifteenth and Mt. Vernon streets, when, it is thought, he overtaxed his energies, for shortly after the completion of the church his health failed him. The funeral will occur Tuesday at 12 o'clock, interment private."

"Hon. James H. Collins

Columbus, January 9. -- (Special.) -- Judge James H. Collins, of the legal department of the B. & O. railroad, with headquarters in this city, died at 9 o'clock this morning after an illness of about two weeks. He held the chair of federal practice in the Ohio State University, and was widely known throughout the state. Judge Collins was about 65 years of age and a native of Belmont county, where he studied law. He was formerly president of the Central Ohio railroad, now the B. & O., between Bellaire and Columbus. He was a self-made man. Born in a log cabin of two rooms, he owned at his death two large farms, to one of which near Barnesville, he removed the cabin in which he was born, which now contains his extensive private library. He is survived by a wife and one daughter. Judge Collins married Miss Harriet Davenport, of Earnesville, who is a sister of Mrs. Ada Watson, wife of Col. W. C. Watson, of East Liverpool. Mrs. Watson and her daughters will attend the funeral, leaving East Liverpool Sunday morning. The funeral will be held at Barnesville."

Funeral services were held here Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist church and were conducted by Archdeacon Matthews, of the Epiescopal church, assisted by Archdeacon Smith, of Cambridge, Rev. E. A. Culley, of the presbyterian church and Dr. G. F. Oliver of the Methodist church. An immense throung attended the impressive services and attested the high esteem in which the deceased was held by his old friends and neighbors. Beautiful music was rendered by special singers of the Episcopal church. The remains were laid to rest in the family vault in the Southern cemetery. Mr. Collins leaves a wife, one daughter and a sister to mourn his loss and to whom sincere sympathy is extended in their sad affliction."

"John W. Judkins Former Resident Barnesville Dies

Barnesville, O., March 2 -- John W. Judkins, 89, scion of the first families of the city, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Roy Harrison, Cleveland, Wednesday morning at 10:25 following a one week's illness from a cerebral hemorrhage.

Spending the winters in Cleveland at a hotel apartment, the Judkins family, including Mrs. Judkins and three daughters, Marcia, Clover and Myrtle, had permitted Mr. Judkins to reside this winter with the Harrison's after Mrs. Judkins fell and suffered injuries that confined her to her room.

The son of Dr. Nicholas Judkins, his grandfather was Dr. Carolus Judkins, the first physician to practice here. He was a member of the First Methodist church for 50 years and of the official board for 40 years. He operated a shoe store here until 15 years ago after 40 years of activity.

Born in Barnesville, he resided here all his life. He would have been 90 years old July 15. His wife was the former Miss Emma Cole, sister to C. M. Cole, a prominent real estate dealer here. A daughter, Mrs. Frank Metzler, Uniontown, Pa., survives also.

Campbell ambulance will go to Cleveland Thursday and return early Friday with the remains. Services are to be conducted from the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cole, South Lincoln avenue, at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. Rev. S. E. Lafollette, First Methodist church, will officiate. Burial will be in Northern cemetery."

This record indicates that John Bailey and Elizabeth (Judkins) Bailery were born between 1800 and 1810.

On February 12, 1841, at Belmont County, Ohio, D.B. Z/107, John Bailey and his wife Elizabeth Bailey of Belmont County, Ohio, sold to Jesse Judkins their one-half interest in 29 acres of land in the NW ¼ of Section 21, Township 8, Range 6, in Belmon County, Ohio.

On June 30, 1841, at Belmont County, Ohio, D.B. Z/343, John Bailey and his wife Elizabeth Bailey of Belmont County, Ohio, sold to Nicholas Judkins the East half of Lot 44 in the Town of Barnesville.

Elizabeth (Judkins) Bailey and John Bailey have not as yet been located in the 1850 Census. There was a John Bailey and Elizabeth Bailey in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, but the Elizabeth of that household was born in Pennsylvania and so was apparently a different person from Elizabeth (Judkins) Bailey.

The will of Carolus Judkins dated on October 24, 1851, and probated on February 28, 1855, at Belmont County, Ohio, Probate File 3540, listed his three Bailey grandchildren:

> "I Carolus Judkins of Barnesville Belmont County and State of Ohio being weak in body but of disposing mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament in the following manner and form that is to say
> I gave my three Grand Children namely Rachael Bailey William Bailey and Charity Bailey Children of John and Elizabeth Bailey one hundred Dollars to each one of them to be paid out of the proceeds of my property
> in witness whereof I Set my hand and seal this twenty fourth day of October in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred & fifty one
> . . . .
> Carolus Judkins Senr

This record identifies the family of Elizabeth (Judkins) Bailey and John Bailey as follows:

Children:
1) Rachel Bailey,
2) William Bailey, and
3) Charity Bailey.

In addition, the listing of these grandchildren and not their mother or father indicates that Elizabeth (Judkins) Bailey and John Bailey had probably died before October 24, 1851.

The 1850 Census for Gallia County, Ohio, listed Rachel, William, and Charity Bailey in the Samuel C. Bailey household on October 2, 1850, confirming the death of their parents and their placement in their what appears to be the household of a relative of their father. This record indicates that Elizabeth (Judkins) Bailey and John Bailey had probably died before October 2, 1850.

The Background of Mary Alice (Sharpe) Yalden Thomson and Alexander Beatty Sharpe, Jr., compiled by Elizabeth E. Boice Jones for Emma (Carter) (Sharpe) Zeis and published in 1940, included the following regarding the children of Carolus Judkins:

> To Carolus and Charity Peele Judkins were born the following named children, Thomas, Jesse, Joel, James, Anderson, Nicholas, Elizabeth, Rachel and William, all of whom, except Rachel, are dead. To the best of the knowledge and belief of the writer, Rachel Kelly is the last survivor of her generation. . . ."

The Judkins Journal, Volume 8, Number 3, stated that Elizabeth Judkins was a son of 1854 Carolus Judkins and Charity (Peele) Judkins and married John Bailey on October 16, 1826.

From the evidence set forth above, the children of Elizabeth (Judkins) Bailey and John Bailey were the following:

1) Rachel Bailey, born in about 1832 in Ohio,

2) William Bailey, born in about 1833 in Ohio, and

3) Charity Bailey, born in about 1835 in Ohio.

(A) Rachel Bailey

Rachel Bailey was a daughter of Elizabeth (Judkins) Bailey and John Bailey. (1672 Samuel[1], 1693 Robert[2], 1761 Robert[3], 1783 Nicholas[4], 1854 Carolus[5], Elizabeth[6])

The will of Carolus Judkins dated on October 24, 1851, and probated on February 28, 1855, at Belmont County, Ohio, Probate File 3540, listed Rachel Bailey as his grandchild:

"I Carolus Judkins of Barnesville Belmont County and State of Ohio being weak in body but of disposing mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament in the following manner and form that is to say
. . . .
I gave my three Grand Children namely Rachael Bailey William Bailey and Charity Bailey Children of John and Elizabeth Bailey one hundred Dollars to each one of them to be paid out of the proceeds of my property
in witness whereof I Set my hand and seal this twenty fourth day of October in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred & fifty one
. . . .

The 1850 Census for Gallia County, Ohio, listed Rachel Bailey in the Samuel C. Bailey household on October 2, 1850, and her age as 18 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1832.

(B) William Bailey

William Bailey was a son of Elizabeth (Judkins) Bailey and John Bailey. (1672 Samuel[1], 1693 Robert[2], 1761 Robert[3], 1783 Nicholas[4], 1854 Carolus[5], Elizabeth[6])

The will of Carolus Judkins dated on October 24, 1851, and probated on February 28, 1855, at Belmont County, Ohio, Probate File 3540, listed William Bailey as his grandchild:

> "I Carolus Judkins of Barnesville Belmont County and State of Ohio being weak in body but of disposing mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament in the following manner and form that is to say

> in witness whereof I Set my hand and seal this twenty fourth day of October in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred & fifty one
> . . . .

The 1850 Census for Gallia County, Ohio, listed William Bailey in the Samuel C. Bailey household on October 2, 1850, and his age as 17 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1833.

(C) Charity Bailey

Charity Bailey was a daughter of Elizabeth (Judkins) Bailey and John Bailey. (1672 Samuel[1], 1693 Robert[2], 1761 Robert[3], 1783 Nicholas[4], 1854 Carolus[5], Elizabeth[6])

The will of Carolus Judkins dated on October 24, 1851, and probated on February 28, 1855, at Belmont County, Ohio, Probate File 3540, listed Charity Bailey as his grandchild:

> "I Carolus Judkins of Barnesville Belmont County and State of Ohio being weak in body but of disposing mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament in the following manner and form that is to say

in witness whereof I Set my hand and seal this twenty fourth day of October in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred & fifty one

. . . .

The 1850 Census for Gallia County, Ohio, listed Charity Bailey in the Samuel C. Bailey household on October 2, 1850, and her age as 15 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1835.

(VIII) Rachel (Judkins) Kelley Or Kelly, Her Husband John Kelley Or Kelly, And Her Descendants

Rachel (Judkins) Kelley or Kelly was a daughter of 1854 Carolus Judkins of Belmont County, Ohio, and Charity (Peele) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1693 Robert[2], 1761 Robert[3], 1783 Nicholas[4], 1854 Carolus[5])

The said plaintiff says that the valid debts of said decedent John Kelly amount to over Twenty one hundred (2100) Dollars, that the costs of administration will amount to about two hundred (200) dollars, and that the total value of the personal estate and effects of said decedent is but $1680.55, being insufficient to pay the debts and costs aforesaid.

Said plaintiff further represents that said John Kelly died seized in fee simple of the following described real estate, situate in the City of Bellaire, County of Belmont, and State of Ohio, to wit;

All the six foot vein of coal now being and remaining under the lands owned by John Kelly, Sr. father of said decedent at the time of his death, with the right to mine and remove the same, also, the entry, track, trestle and chutes appurtenant to what is known as the Kelly Coal Bank, with the right to remove said Trestle, chutes and outside track from the land of C. C. Kelly within a reasonable time after purchase.

Said plaintiff further represents that said real estate was appraised in accordance with an order of this court by the appraisers of the personal property of said decedent, and that the amount of said appraisement is one thousand (1000) dollars; that said decedent died leaving the said Lillie Kelly his widow, who is entitled to dower in said premises; that the defendant Carolus M. Kelly is the only child and heir of said decedent, and is a minor under fourteen years of age; and that said Lillie Kelly is the duly appointed guardian of said Carolus M. Kelly.

Wherefore the plaintiff asks that the dower of said Lillie Kelly may be set off and assigned to her as provided by law; that said real estate may be ordered sold, and that the same may be at private sale, and for all other, further, and proper relief.

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found which identifies Edwin Parker, the son of Jacob and Faith (Judkins) Parker, as the same person as Edwin S. Parker who died in 1859 in Vermont, Fulton County, Illinois. However, circumstantial evidence indicates that identification.

First, as set forth above, Edwin Parker was born on June 15, 1816, in Ohio and Edwin S. Parker was born on Jun 12, 1816, or in about 1817 in Jefferson County, Ohio.

Second, Edwin Parker was a son of Jacob Parker and oldest brother was named Jordan Parker and Edwin S. Parker named his oldest son Jacob Jordan Parker.

Third, Edwin Parker's mother's brother Joel Judkins married Lucy Stanton and Edwin S. Parker named his youngest son Edwin Stanton Parker.

This circumstantial evidence indicates that Edwin Parker and Edwin S. Parker were probably the same person, but further research will be required to confirm this identification. The remainder of this section will discuss the documentation that has been found for Edwin S. Parker and his wife Cassaline or Causlinah M. (Carithers) Parker.

f. Possibly 1784 Samuel Maget Judkins Of Surry County

1784 Samuel Magget Judkins was possibly a son of 1761 Robert Judkins of Sussex County, Virginia, and Faith (Maget) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1693 Robert[2])

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found identifying 1784 Samuel Magget Judkins of Surry County as a son of 1761 Robert Judkins of Sussex County and Faith (Maget) Judkins. Nevertheless, circumstantial evidence indicates that may be the case.

The middle name Magget of 1784 Samuel may reflect his being named after his mother whose maiden name was Maget. His death in 1784 would be consistent with the years of death of his siblings and his place of death in Surry County would also be consistent with that identification. However, further research will be required to confirm this identification.

On September 24, 1784, in Surry County, Virginia, the inventory of the estate of Samuel Maget Judkins was filed:

No deed has been found by which James Judkins acquired any interest in the referenced land and, as set forth above in the section on 1672 Samuel Judkins, this deed reflects a clearing of a cloud on title as to land in which James Judkins' grandmother Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman had an interest as a child of Thomas Gray.

Surry County, Virginia, Deeds 1684-1733 and Other Court Papers, by William Lindsay Hopkins, also listed Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 7/635, from James Judkins to William Gray:

And at a Court held for the Said County the 22d Day April 1765 the said Indenture of Mortgage was fully proved by the Oath of William Edwards Another of the Witnesses thereto & Ordered to be Recorded

Teste N. Edwards jr. D Cl:"

The full recording of this mortgage in April 1765, two years after the due date on the debt secured by the mortgage, suggests that James Judkins might have died before April 1765 without having paid his debt and thus necessitating the recording of the mortgage in order to convey title to the land to the mortgagee Daniel Weldon.

However, no estate administration for James Judkins has as yet been found in Brunswick County.

Neither Marriage Records Of Brunswick County, Virginia, 1730-1852, compiled by Augusta B. Fothergill, nor Botetourt County Marriages, 1770-1853, by John Vogt and T. William Kethley, Jr., listed any marriages of a person surnamed Judkins.

No person surnamed Judkins has as yet been found in the 1782 Personal Property Tax List for Brunswick County, Virginia.

Greensville County, Virginia, was formed in part from Brunswick County, Virginia, in 1780.

The marriage register of Greensville County, Virginia, did not list the marriage of a person surnamed Judkins from 1781 through 1800.

No person surnamed Judkins has as yet been found in the 1782 Personal Property Tax List for Greensville County, Virginia.

After March 6, 1803, and before November 3, 1803, in Sussex County, Virginia, Chancery Court, the heirs of Charles Judkins filed suit for a division of the land of Charles Judkins:

"To the Worshipful Court of Sussex County in Chancery Sitting

Humbly complaining shew unto your worships your orators and oratrixes, John Judkins, Frederick Judkins, Patsey Judkins, & Fanny B. Judkins, which said Frederick, Patsey and Fanny are infants under the age of twenty one years by the said John Judkins their next friend, That Charles Judkins late of this county departed this life intestate on the 6th March 1803, seized of certain lands in this county and possessed of many slaves, and a valuable personal estate. The said intestate left five children, to wit your orators and oratrixes, and their sister Sally who intermarried with Edward Pennington, who in due form of law obtained from this court administration of the said estate. That the intestate left no widow. That the said intestate owed some debts to what amount has not yet been ascertained. That the said intestate by way of advancement in his lifetime gave and delivered to his son your orator John a mare of the value of about Thirty pounds, and also gave and delivered to the said Edward Pennington and Sally his wife one negro woman called Anaky and two children one called Moggy, and the other Douglas, and the said Anaky after the advancement made and while in the possession of the said Pennington had two other children, one called Sam and the other called Andrew, and also gave and delivered to the said Pennington one black mare of the value of Thirty pounds, and one feather bed and furniture. That the parties aforesaid are willing to divide the said Lands, and as many of the slaves as can with propriety be divided, leaving a fund sufficient in the hands of the said administrator to pay the debts and expenses of administration. In tender consideration whereof your orators and oratrixes pray the aid of this court in equity. To the end therefore that the said Edward Pennington, and Sally his wife as defendants to this bill may truly answer the premises and that your worships will be pleased to decree and order that the said lands may be equally divided between the heirs aforesaid, that the advancements aforesaid may be brought into Hotchpot. That the said defendant the administrator may shew statement of the debts due by the intestate and the assets in his hands. That the said slaves may be equally divided amongst the parties aforesaid, if there be other funds sufficient to pay the debts. And that your worships will be pleased to grant such other and further relief in the premises as equity dictates and as to your worships shall seem just and meet. May it please your worships the premises considered &c. to grant the Commonwealth's writ of subpoena &c.

The joint and several answer of Edward Pennington administrator of Charles Judkins deceased, and of the said Edward Pennington and Sally, his wife, to the bill of complaint exhibited against them in the court of Sussex County, by John Judkins and others, complainants,

These defendants saving and reserving to themselves all benefit of exceptions, etc. to the said bill for answer say That they have the same interest in the estate mentioned in the bill as the complainants. And the said defendant Edward Pennington saith, that there are debts owing by his intestate, to which amount he cannot now state, and he has not had time to ascertain the amount, it being only a few months since this defendant qualified as the administrator, Whether the mere perishable personal estate will be sufficient to answer the demands against the intestate, and the charges and expenses of the administration, this defendant cannot now say. That this defendant humbly conceives that in his present situation with respect to the affairs of the intestate, it would be unsafe for him to permit a division of all the slaves, without leaving in his hands a proportion of them to answer demands which may appear and which this defendant cannot probably ascertain in a short time. That the small advancement received by this defendant he is willing to bring into Hotchpot. These defendants pray to be hence dismissed, &c.

That the residue of the said slaves including those brought into Hotchpot be divided into five equal parts, and that one part be alloted to each of the plaintiffs, and the remaining fifth part to the defendants, and that an account of the administration of the said Edward Pennington as far as it has proceeded be stated, and also that an account of the debts due by the intestate and of the value of the mere personal estate be also stated. | Field Worker, | John F. DaughertySulphur, Oklahoma. |
| Interview with | Mrs. Virginia Davis, |

Davis, Oklahoma.

My father was Charlie Judkins, born in Richmond, Virginia, August 13, 1813. Mother was Katherine Gage Judkins, born in Texas, May 10, 1832. Father was a mechanic and ship builder.

I was born in Texas, January 13, 1868 and was married in Texas, April 20, 1885. My husband, three children and I came to the Territory in a covered wagon, November 1, 1893. It took us sixteen days to come, and such a trip: we had a map to guide us, but the roads were just cow trails much of the way. Sometimes the road on which we were traveling would end abruptly in a large ravine and we would have to retrace our route, perhaps losing a half day.

We had three fine mares, two of which we drove and we led the third. One of these mares had left a colt at the place where we had been living, and about the time we reached Red River the mare broke loose from the rear of the wagon and away she went toward our old home. My husband got on one of the other mares and started after her. he chased her for [missing portion?] saw him and he called her back.

We had a coop on the back of the wagon in which we had twelve hens. Late each evening we would let these hens out, feed and water them and let them remain outside their coop until roosting time. We never traveled on Sunday; we always camped on Saturday night and stayed in this same place until Monday morning.

We crossed Red River on a ferryboat, pulled by a cable at South Bend Ferry near Thackerville. We had been having trouble to find feed for our horses and when we got across the river, found grass waist high and it was a relief to find something for our horses to graze on.

We settle at Silo on the edge of Twelve Mile Prairie in the Chickasaw Nation. My husband found a house to build soon after we stopped here and we were all happy to be in this land of plenty. We had plenty of sorghum molasses, corn bread and meat of wild animals. There were many wild hogs here, but they were not fat. My husband used to say if we killed a hog we had to get out and run a rabbit down to get grease to fry the hog.

Quails came through our yard and ate with the chickens. Wolves chased our dogs into the house many times. One nights terrible rain storm came and washed our stick and dirt chimney into the room where we were sleeping. It fell in a heap and we could see outdoors through the hole where the chimney had been. It rained so hard that the creek got "up" and water was deep enough for our cows to swim in. Our food was all washed away and we had nothing to eat for two days.

My husband became ill during our first year here and we were without food again. In those days people were very thoughtful and a neighbor came one evening, bringing a good supply of food. In a few days his wife became ill and then I returned his kindness by taking care of her.

The first Spring we were here the wild strawberries were plentiful. I like them so much and we went berry hunting one day and found about a gallon, and when we were about a mile from home we found some large wild strawberries in a thicket. We couldn't get those and we went on home. That night I got up while I was asleep, went to the thicket, ate all the berries there and returned to my bed without waking.

The next morning my feet were full of briers and I had strawberry juice all over my face. I didn't remember about my trip to the berry patch but when I went to look at it, the berries had all been picked.

When we wanted to milk a cow we ran her into our horse lot, roped her, and I got in the shed and held the rope through the cracks while my husband milked her. We kept about three cows all the time. They belonged to a ranch near us and the ranch men gave us permission to milk as many as we wanted. The cows were not hard train and when they went dry, we turned them back on the range and drove in some fresh ones.

One night one of our horses disappeared and we looked for her everywhere but she could not be found. One day my husband found her, plowing in a nearby field. He claimed her and said the man who was plowing admitted that he had stolen her.

We moved to Tishomingo and lived in a cellar, dug in a bank. It was covered with ducking, soaked in linseed oil, to keep it from leaking when it rained. The walls were canvassed and this made it a very warm place in which to live.

We greatly enjoyed watching the full blood Indians during the period of enrollment each year. The town was full of Indians during this time. The period lasted about ten days or two weeks. All children born since the last enrollment period were brought to town and put on the Indian rolls. This entitled each child to draw money when the paymenst were made to that tribe. Of course, the parents of these children were eager for them to be placed on the rolls for it meant that the parents would receive more money when the payments were made, to the town was always crowded with Indians at this time. Those little papooses sat on their mother's backs and I never saw one cry. They were the best behaved children I ever saw. This enrollment ceased March 4, 1906.

When the Dawes Commision was appointed about 1900 to make the rolls for the allotment of land to the Five Civilized Tribes, they used those enrollments to make their rolls.

One day a tent show came to town and some drunken Indians rode up and down the street, shooting, and splashing mud. The manager decided that this was no place for his show and they moved before time for their performance to start.

There was no schools near us when we first came here, and I was determined that my children should not grow up in ignorance so I organized a school and taught in one room of my house for two years so that my children could go to school. I had about twenty pupils and they paid tuition. It was not always paid in money. I took whatever the children had to offer.

I had one pupil whose father was a dry goods peddler. He refused to pay for his child's education. One day I went to his house to collect. He was not at home but his wife gave me goods for the tuition he owed. I took the goods and went home. The next day the peddlar came after the goods. I persuaded him to pay what he owed me and I returned his goods. That was the only trouble I had collecting.

I am the mother of ten children and have reared eight orphan children, also."

Captured at Howlett's farm, June 18, 1864, he was destined to become one of the "immortal Six Hundred." After confinement at Bermuda Hundred, June 20, he was sent to Fort Monroe. On June 22 he was sent to Point Lookout, and on June 23 was transferred to Fort Delaware. Sent to Hilton Head, S.C., Aug. 20, 1864, and then to Fort Pulaski, Ga. Sent to Fort Delaware, Mar. 12, 1865; released after taking the oath, June 17, 1865. Fraetus died in New York in April 1879, with the reputation of being "one of the best printers in the country."

Wikipedia and a news release from Fort Pulaski of the National Park Service stated that in the summer of 1863, the Confederacy passed a resolution stating that all captured African-American soldiers and the officers of colored troops would not be returned and allowed for any captured officer of colored troops to be executed and any captured African-American soldier be sold into slavery. The resolution caused a breakdown in the exchange of captured soldiers as the Union demanded all soldiers be treated equally. In June 1864, the Confederate Army imprisoned five generals and forty-five Union Army officers in the city of Charleston, South Carolina, using them as human shields in an attempt to stop Union artillery from firing on the city. In retaliation, United States Secretary of War Edwin M. Stanton ordered fifty captured Confederate officers, of similar ranks, to be taken to Morris Island, South Carolina, at the entrance to Charleston Harbor. Correspondence resolved the impasse and after an initial exchange of 50 officers, Confederate General Samuel Jones brought an additional 600 Union prisoners to Charleston for exchange and 600 Confederate prisoners were moved from Fort Delaware to Morris Island. However, General Ulysses S. Grant refused to allow the exchange of prisoners until the Confederacy agreed to treat both black and white prisoners of war equally. The Confederate prisoners were exposed to Confederate cannon fire in open pens and given rations equivalent to those given to Union prisoners in Andersonville Prison. The 600 Confederate prisoners became known as the Immortal Six Hundred for their refusal to sign the oath of allegiance in order to be released from their adverse circumstances. When the impasse was resolved, the Confederate prisoners were moved to Fort Pulaski and then to Fort Delaware.

From the evidence set forth above, the children of William Judkins and Catherine (____) Judkins were the following:

1) William Judkins, born on March 22, 1739/40, in Albemarle Parish, Surry

County, Virginia,

2) James Judkins, on March 5, 1741/42, in Albemarle Parish, Surry County, Virginia,

3) Possibly Thomas Judkins, and

4) Betty (Judkins) Hare.

a. William Judkins

William Judkins was a son of William Judkins and Catherine (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1710 Charles[2], William[3])

Births, Deaths and Sponsors 1717-1778 for Albemarle Parish Register of Surry and Sussex Counties, Virginia, by John B. Boddie, listed the birth of William Judkins, son of William and Catherine Judkins, on March 22, 1739, in Albemarle Parish, Virginia:

"Wm. and Catherine Judkins

Wm., 3/22/39, Robert Seat, Thos. Pennington, Eliz. Grantham
. . . ."

Register of Albemarle Parish, Surry and Sussex Counties 1739-1778, transcribed and edited by Gertrude R. B. Richards, listed the birth of William Judkins, son of William and Catharine Judkins, on March 22, 1739/40, in Albemarle Parish, Virginia:

"William s. of Wm Judkins and w. Catharine; b. March 22, 1739/40; c. April 10, 1740; gdpts. Robert Seat jr, Thos Pennington, Eliza Grantham."

b. James Judkins

James Judkins was a son of William Judkins and Catherine (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1710 Charles[2], William[3])

Births, Deaths and Sponsors 1717-1778 for Albemarle Parish Register of Surry and Sussex Counties, Virginia, by John B. Boddie, listed the birth of James Judkins, son of William and Catherine Judkins, on March 5, 1741, in Albemarle Parish, Virginia:

James, 3/5/41, Joshuah Rolland, Wm. Rolland, Eliz. Rolland"

Register of Albemarle Parish, Surry and Sussex Counties 1739-1778, transcribed and edited by Gertrude R. B. Richards, listed the birth ofJames Judkins, son of William and Catharine Judkins, on March 5, 1741/42, in Albemarle Parish,

Virginia:

> "James s. of Wm Judkins and w. Catharine; b. March 5, 1741/42; c. April 11, 1742; gdpts. Joshua Rolland, William Rolland, Eliza Rolland."

c. Probably Thomas Judkins

Thomas Judkins was probably a son of William Judkins and Catherine (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1710 Charles[2], William[3])

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found identifying Thomas Judkins as a son of William Judkins. However, circumstantial evidence supports such an identification.

First, William Judkins had a brother Thomas who had died in 1732 in Surry County, Virginia, and it would be natural for William to name one of his sons Thomas in memory of his deceased brother Thomas.

Second, as set forth below, both William and Thomas Judkins appeared in Pitt County, North Carolina, in 1762 and 1763. Since they were the only person with that surname in the county at that time, it suggests a probable family connection between the two.

And third, as set forth above, Thomas Judkins acted as a witness to William Judkins' Pitt County Deed D/137, an action often performed by a family member.

Nevertheless, further research will be required to confirm this identification.

In her email dated September 2, 2020, Sharon Gammon enclosed a copy of Tax Lists for Pitt County, North Carolina, for 1763 which listed William Judkins and Thomas Judkins, each with 1 tithable:

> William Judkins 1
> Thomas Judkins 1"

In her email dated September 3, 2020, Sharon Gammon enclosed a copy of Tax Lists for Pitt County, North Carolina, for 1764 and filed on December 6, 1764, which listed William Judkins and Thomas Judkins, each with 1 tithable:

> ". . . .
> Thomas Judkins 1 . 1"

On October 11, 1770, at Pitt County, North Carolina, D.B. D/137, Thomas Judgkins was a witness to the deed from William Judgkins to John Munden.

d. Betty (Judkins) Hare And Her Husband Hare

Betty (Judkins) Hare was a daughter of William Judkins and Catherine (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1710 Charles[2], William[3])

On November 8, 1775, at Pitt County, North Carolina, D.B. F/196, William Judkins sold to his daughter Betty Hare 150 acres of land on which he then lived:

"North Carolina SS. To all Christian People unto whom this presents writing shall come I William Judkins of Pitt County and Province aforesaid send Greeting Know ye that I the said William Judkins for divers good causes and valuable considerations, me hereunto moving have given and granted and doth by these Presents give grant and confirm unto my daughter Betty Hare One hundred and fifty Acres of Land more or less it being the Land and plantation that I now live on To have and to hold the said Parcel Land of me the said William Judkins unto the said Betty hare her heirs Executors & administrators for ever Peaceably & quietly without any manner Lett Trouble or Demand of me the said William Judkins or any other Person or Persons what soever of which Premises the said William Judkins have put the said Betty Hare in full and Peaceable Possession by virtue here of In Witness where of The said William Judkins have here unto Set my Hand and seal this 9 day of November Anno Domini 1775
